A Note from Debbie

Christmas. There is no other holiday quite like it. The Christmas holiday goes well beyond all of the hustle and bustle, holiday shopping and wrapping, decorating, and dining. It goes back to a lowly manger in Bethlehem many years ago. As a Pastor, it is my heart's passion that each of you allow room in your heart for an intimate relationship with Jesus. This poem reflects my desire for each and every one of us:

"If you look for me at Christmas, you won't need a special star. I am no longer just in Bethlehem, I am right there where you are. You may not be aware of Me, amidst celebrations. You'll have to look beyond the stars, and the stories, and all the decorations. If you take a moment, from the list of things to do, and listen to your heart, you'll find, I'm waiting there for you. You're the one I want to be with, you're the reason that I came, and you'll find Me in the stillness, as I am whispering your name. Love, Jesus"

Please take time this Christmas season to remember the reason for the season. It's not a time to recognize Him one day a year, but to recognize Him moment by moment in the life you live and honor Him with everything you say and do. For God so loved the world, that He gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever believes in Him, shall not perish but have everlasting life. Merry Christmas!

Employee of the Month

Donna Dahler

Tell us about yourself: I am married with three children, two grandchildren, one dog, and one cat. I have lived in Litchfield for 26+ years. I was born in Redbud, Illinois and then moved to Belleville when I was two years old and lived there until I moved to Litchfield. I have two older sisters and two younger brothers, five nieces and three nephews, and four great nieces and two great nephews. If I can make someone laugh every day, then I have accomplished my goal.

Do you have any future goals or plans: I am looking forward to retirement when my husband and I plan to go RVing cross country and travel abroad.

What are your hobbies: I enjoy crafting, going for walks, nature trails, and learning new things, and I LOVE jigsaw puzzles.

What do you like most about working at Timber Creek Village: I love talking to the people that live in our community. Life experiences, people they have known or met, and things you only witness once in a lifetime.

Resident of the Month

Tell us about yourself: I lived most of my life in Staunton, Illinois. I went to college at Eastern Illinois University and had an enjoyable time in yearbook and photography.

What are your hobbies: I enjoy photography, making crafts, scrapbooking, and watching movies.

What do you like most about living at Timber Creek Village: A bit of everything: I enjoy the meals because everyone is nice and talkative, and that is enjoyable to me. I enjoy my time here at Timber Creek Village.
